THE DIRECTOR

Larry Houston and I believe it would be worthwhile for you to telephone Senator Russell thanking him for the Committee's cooperation and mentioning how well the public hearing with Powers went off. You might also mention the discussion in Senate Foreign Relations concerning a Joint Committee and CIA relationships with Senate Foreign Relations generally. Perhaps it would be worthwhile meeting with him at a later date on this latter subject after you have had time to think about it a bit.

Attached for information is the transcript of that hearing.

7 March 1962
